The 1984 bylaws of the Faculty Senate of the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, give the Research Council the responsibility of concerning itself "with institutional policy on research grants and funding, with patent policy, with protection of investigators, with protection of human subjects of research, with protection of experimental animals, with publications, with development of interdisciplinary research, with development of specialized research facilities for intercollegiate use, and with other matters of policy pertaining to research programs." The Faculty Senate approves all actions of the Research Council.

The first two boxes of materials are bound notebooks of general work by the Council followed by folders of the minutes of meetings. Thereafter, the Collection is an alphabetical arrangement of the committees of the Council. The remaining files are placed under broad headings. For additional information see: AR-11.
